Rick W. Finch

Senior Vice President of Business Development
ActiGraph, LLC

In 2005, Mr. Finch joined Actigraph as a consultant to develop the physician prescription and retail markets. He worked to help secure the relevant billing codes and protocol for the initiation of ActiGraph into the medical sales market. Mr. Finch also worked to develop marketing protocols/partnerships for new product development.

Mr. Finch currently serves as the Senior Vice President for ActiGraph, LLC, and is responsible for all aspects of medical/retail sales and future business development for the company. In addition, he co-owns A Redish Canvas & Awning and was founder of Bagelheads on Pensacola Beach.

Mr. Finch has ten years of experience in pharmaceutical and durable medical sales. He has worked as a representative, sales trainer, district manager, regional manager and consultant. He has earned numerous national recognitions including Sales Representative of the Year, Manager of the Year and Presidents Club.

Provide a brief description of nominee's qualification:

Reverend Johnson has received numerous recognitions for his work in the community and throughout the state. Most recently the Pensacola community honored him by naming the Michael J. Johnson Sr. Housing Development after him. This honor acknowledges the tremendous outreach he has initiated within the community to improve the quality of life for all citizens. He has been an outspoken advocate in the community in the area of equity, religion, education and child development. He has earned the respect of the community and is a role model for future generations in Pensacola and surrounding areas. He is known in the community as a strong, passionate and committed man whose accomplishments are well documented and admired.

Respectfully submitted,
Juanita M. Scott
